Terms of business: General terms and conditions (GTC) of the Confederation for procurements as of September 2016 (with amendments of January 2021). GTC's of suppliers are expressly excluded.

Essential requirements:The client only awards public commissions for services in Switzerland to tenderers who comply with job security regulations and the conditions of work for employees, and provide equal payment for men and women. The bidder and the instructing party undertake to take all necessary measures to avoid corruption, in particular that no payments, gifts or other advantage will be offered or accepted. Should this integrity clause be disregarded, the contractor must pay a contract penalty. This will amount to 10 % of the contract value, a minimum of CHF 3'000.- percontravention. The bidder should take note that a contravention of the integrity clause generally results in the annulment of the tender and the premature termination of the contract for important reasons by the instructing Party.

Additional information: The bidder must confirm acceptance of the Terms of business (4.2) and the essential requirements (4.4) in writing.

Procedures for appeal: In accordance with Article 56 paragraph 1 of the Public Procurement Act (PPA), a written appeal against this decision can be lodged with the Federal Administrative Court, P.O. Box, 9023 St. Gallen, Switzerland, within 20 days of notification. Any appeal is to be submitted in duplicate and must include what is being sought, the grounds for appeal, evidence and the signature of the person lodging the appeal or his or her representative. A copy of this decision and available evidence must be included. The provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) on legal holidays do not apply in accordance with Article 56 paragraph 2 of the PPA.
