2.1.6 Grounds for exclusion

Corruption: A tenderer convicted by final judgment for the following offences shall be excluded from participating in the procurement procedure: The obligation to exclude a participant or tenderer also applies when a person who has been convicted by final judgment for a violation of Paragraph 1 of Article 68 of the PPA, is a member of the administrative, management or supervisory board of the relevant economic operator, or is an authorized representative, is authorized to make decisions or has a controlling position in the relevant economic operator. When a court or a public authority in the tenderer's or participant's country of registration or in a EEC member state has ruled with a final judgment that a participant, or a tenderer is in violation of the duty to pay taxes, pension fund premiums or other statutory fees, the tenderer or participant shall be excluded from participating in the procurement process. The participant or the tenderer shall submit documentation according to the above mentioned which cannot be older than 3 months. In addition, the Buyer reserves the right to exclude an economic operator from participating in a procurement process if other reasons for exclusion listed in Article 68 of the PPA apply to the economic operator. When evaluating the qualification of tenderers and deciding on the award of contract, the Contracting authority and the Buyer will, in accordance with paragraph 6 of Art. 68 of the PPA, and respective of Recommendations from the OECD Working Group on Bribery, take into account whether an economic operator has made sufficient measures to prevent and detect national or international bribery committed by the company staff, e.g. by internal audit systems, report button on the company website, code of conduct, policy on gifts and facilitation payments etc. The tenderer shall confirm and describe in its tender what precautionary measures have been taken to that end. The Buyer reserves the right at any time to request further documentation, in accordance with Article 74 of the PPA.
